

TITANIUM

intro:

sometimes people try to bring me down unhappy, bored to death and rotten from distrust killjoys, winners, turning on their own, always ready to blame someone

strophe 1:

do you really believe you can dash me to the ground fuck off
i get up round by round

try to hit but you will fail
fire away, fire away
you can attack as much as you want i'm bulletproof and have nothing to lose

refrain:

you can shoot me down, but i won't fall
i am titanium – i get up!

strophe 2:

i'm getting crazy, everything goes wrong broke to the bone and out of luck one of these lousy days i feel betrayed and fucked by fate

refrain:

i am titanium – i get up!
